

PASSAGES

JOHN WOOD

NEW BOARD MEMBERS continued from page 1

1974. Since 1991, Dr. Lee has been a member of the Committee of 100, a Founding Board Member of Self Help for the Elderly (SHE), San Mateo and former and current Director. He is a Founding Executive Board Member, former Director and former Trustee of the Chinese Historical and Cultural Project. He is a former member of the Santa Clara County General Plan Advisory Board, appointed by Congressman Michael Honda. A descendant of immigrants who came through Angel Island, Jeffery lives with his family in the south bay.

Kenneth L. Lee is currently the Vice President of Security for United Parcel Service (UPS) in Atlanta, GA, and is the highest ranking Asian Pacific American in the company. He also serves as the Executive Vice President for OCA National in Washington, DC. Ken serves on several boards in the Atlanta area and helps with "Chopstix for Charity," which helps raise funds for Asian American human services organizations in the region. Ken's father immigrated through Angel Island.

Kelvin Quan, JD, MPH, is currently a director at the Public Health Institute, a national leader in public health research, training and community capacity building. His career included senior executive roles managing health plans and hospitals, including positions as CFO and General Counsel. In 1980, he co-founded the Bay Area Asian Health Alliance, a health advocacy group, and Self-Help HomeCare, a home health agency serving monolingual Chinese elderly, in 1981. His professional passion is the promotion of cultural competence and diversity in health care through social entrepreneurship. Kelvin's parents, grandparents and great-grandfather came through Angel Island.

AIISF also said farewell to board members Elizabeth Goldstein, Tod Hara, Felicia Lowe, Vik Malhotra, Irene Yee Riley. We thank them for their years of service. Their dedication, expertise and good humor will be missed.

AIISF WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

AIISF is proud to introduce five new members to the Board of Directors. All joined the board in January 2007 and bring a range of experiences and expertise to AIISF.

Rodney A. Fong is a native San Franciscan and a third generation operator/owner of the world famous Wax Museum at Fisherman's Wharf. The Museum was founded by his grandfather, Thomas Fong, in 1963. Rodney also serves as the Wax Museum's President and Director of Marketing. Rodney has been active in and served as an officer for several tourism and travel related organizations, including the San Francisco Convention and Tourism Bureau, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, Fisherman's Wharf Community Benefit District and California Travel Industry Association. In November of 2006, Mayor Gavin Newsom appointed Rodney to the San Francisco Port Commission, where he will serve until 2010. He is also the Director of the Eva and Thomas Fong Family Foundation, which supports many local social services programs. Three of Rodney's grandparents came through Angel Island.

Ming Hsu is Senior Advisor to the Neptune Orient Lines Group and formerly Vice President for International Marketing at RCA Corporation in New York. She is a former Commissioner of the Federal Maritime Commission, to which she was appointed by former President George H.W. Bush and confirmed by the Senate in 1990. She is currently a member of the Advisory Board to the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, to which she was appointed by former Secretary of Transportation Norman Mineta. She has also served as a Member of the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services under former Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney. She is member of the Committee of 100. She graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa from George Washington University, holds several honorary degrees, and is the recipient of numerous awards, including the U.S. Medal of Freedom. She currently resides in Los Angeles.

Dr. Jeffery Lee earned an undergraduate degree from the University of California, Berkeley and a DDS degree from Loyola University's School of Dentistry, Chicago, in

continued on page 4