

An Ping, Public Relations Director
212-371-6565 or ping_an@committee100.org

Committee of 100 Welcomes Three New Members

(New York, NY, August 3, 2010) The Committee of 100, an organization of Chinese American leaders, welcomes three new members: Anne H. Chow, Senior Vice President of the Premier Client Group (PCG) of AT&T; Paul Lin, Partner in the Mergers and Acquisitions group at Jones Day; and Dr. Jay Xu, Director of the Asian Art Museum of San Francisco.

Anne H. Chow is Senior Vice President of the Premier Client Group (PCG), and leads a national sales and support organization responsible for delivering a full range of communications solutions to enterprise customers ranging from Fortune 500 companies through mid-market clients. She is the first Chinese American officer at AT&T. Throughout her 20+ years in the telecommunications industry, Anne has held leadership positions in hardware and system engineering, sales, marketing, customer care, international operations, product management, and strategic planning. Anne currently serves on the Board of Directors for the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce, the Asian American Justice Center (AAJC) and as a founding member of the National Board of Directors for the Asian and Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund (APIASF).

Paul Lin is a partner in the Mergers and Acquisitions group at Jones Day based in the Los Angeles and Irvine offices. His practice focuses on cross-border corporate transactions, but he also serves the role of an outside general counsel for his clients, advising his domestic and foreign clients on a variety of issues in other practice areas, including coordinating litigation, intellectual property and antitrust matters. His clients range from multi-national public corporations and Chinese state-owned enterprises to medium and small privately held businesses in a broad range of industry segments, including high-tech, consumer products, infrastructure and city development, automotive, green energy and biotech.

First Chinese American director at a major US art museum, Dr. Jay Xu is Director of the Asian Art Museum of San Francisco and a member of the Association of Art Museum Directors. He enjoys a rich variety of international museum experience. Prior to his appointment, he had been Chairman of the Department of Asian and Ancient Art (2006-2008) and Head of the Department of Asian Art (2003-2006) at The Art Institute of Chicago, Curator of Chinese Art at the Seattle Art Museum (1996-2003), and Research Fellow at the Department of Asian Art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art (1995-1996.)

I am delighted to welcome these three prominent Chinese Americans to the Committee of 100, said John Chen, Chairman of the Committee. They will enhance resources and energy, representing invaluable assets to our membership. I look forward to working closely with them to advance our mission.

Founded in 1989 by renowned architect I.M. Pei along with other prominent Chinese Americans, the Committee of 100 is an independent, non-profit membership organization composed of Chinese American leaders in a broad range of professions. Its dual mission is to (1) encourage a stronger relationship between the people of the U.S. and Greater China and (2) encourage the full participation of Chinese Americans in all aspects of American life. For more information: www.committee100.org.

###