ABOUT US

The Committee of 100 (C-100) is a membership organization of Chinese Americans dedicated to the spirit of excellence and achievement in America. Established in 1990 by I.M. Pei and Yo-Yo Ma, C-100 has a rich legacy of harnessing the collective power of its distinguished members to provide leadership and act as a constructive force to advance three core program pillars: U.S.-China Trust-building, Chinese Americans for Greater Inclusion, and Next Generation Leadership Development.

We invite you to be a sponsoring partner of the C-100 2016 Annual Conference on April 16-17, 2016 at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in Beverly Hills, CA. Sponsors will receive exclusive benefits as VIPs of the premier conference on U.S.-China relations and Chinese American advancement. Gain unique access to distinguished speakers, Committee of 100 members, and other key influencers by sponsoring today.

Topics at the C-100 2016 Annual Conference include:

- The U.S.-China Economic and Political Outlook
- Hollywood and China
- Economic Espionage: Spies or Stereotypes?
- Asians in Hollywood
- Chinese-American Journeys: TED-Style talks by C-100 members

This will be the largest C-100 member gathering of the year, and we expect over 500 leaders in business, government, academia, and the media to participate.

The Committee of 100 is a non-partisan 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit, with headquarters in New York City, and regional chapters in Washington, D.C., Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Beijing. Learn more at www.Committee100.org.
