Committee of 100 is a non-profit U.S. leadership organization of prominent Chinese Americans in business, government, academia, healthcare, and the arts focused on public policy engagement, civic engagement, and philanthropy. For over 30 years, Committee of 100 has served as the preeminent organization committed to the dual missions of promoting the full participation of all Chinese Americans in American society and acting as a public policy resource for the Chinese American community; and advancing constructive dialogue and relationships between the peoples and leaders of the United States and Greater China.

Committee of 100's members are American citizens who are proud of our contributions to the United States and our Chinese cultural heritage.

We are an organization of Chinese Americans united by our belief in core American values and the fundamental principles of equality and fairness for all people, regardless of race, religion, national origin, gender, or creed.

We support the full inclusion and advancement of the more than 5 million Chinese Americans in the United States and believe that America is stronger because of its immigrant heritage and diverse citizenry. We firmly reject all forms of prejudice, intolerance, and discrimination.

Mistress of Ceremonies

DION LIM

*News Anchor & Reporter,
KGO-TV/ABC7*

Dion Lim is an Emmy Award-winning TV news anchor and reporter at ABC7/KGO-TV in San Francisco and author of Make Your Moment (McGraw-Hill). She is the flagship author for the new Third State Books, a publishing house dedicated to telling Asian American stories to a wide audience.

Ms. Lim is passionate about amplifying voices of color and has led the charge worldwide in shedding light on the hate and assaults targeting Asian Americans in the Bay Area. Her work has resonated across the country on ABC News Live, Nightline, World News Now, Good Morning America, and 20/20. Whether it be on the speaking circuit for Fortune 500 companies or in op-eds for the San Francisco Chronicle, and an in-depth interview for New York Magazine about hate crimes during Covid-19, Ms. Lim's message is loud and clear: representation matters more now than ever, and we can do it through communication.

Master of Ceremonies

DAVID LOUIE

Award-winning Broadcast & Digital Journalist

David Louie has been a pioneer on many fronts. In 1972, he became the first Asian American to report on-air for Disney ABC Owned KGO-TV in San Francisco. An early advocate to diversify the nation's newsrooms, he was elected national president of the Asian American Journalists Association (AAJA). He was also elected the first minority board chairman of The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS), the New York-based Emmy Awards organization.

A second-generation Chinese American born in a Cleveland suburb, Mr. Louie first appeared on TV starting at age five. A recipient of the Northwestern Alumni Medal, he has endowed an annual scholarship at the University's Medill School of Journalism. In addition to four Emmy Awards, he has received Lifetime Achievement Awards from AAJA, the San Francisco Pacific American Heritage Foundation, and the San Francisco Press Club. Mr. Louie was inducted into the Television Academy's Gold Circle in recognition of 50+ years in television.

Gala Keynote Speaker

HON. JUDY CHU

*United States Representative;
Chair, Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus*

Representative Judy Chu was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in July 2009. She represents the 28th Congressional District, which includes Pasadena and the west San Gabriel Valley of southern California. Representative Chu is the Chair of the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus and currently serves on the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, which has jurisdiction over legislation pertaining to taxes, revenues, Social Security, and Medicare. In that Committee, Representative Chu is a member of the Subcommittees on Health, giving her oversight over healthcare reform and crucial safety net programs, Worker and Family Support, and Oversight. She also serves on the House Small Business Committee, which has oversight of the Small Business Administration. Congresswoman Chu's leadership has been especially valuable to the Chinese American and broader Asian American community. As Chair of CAPAC, she has led the Congressional effort to fight anti-Asian hate, including efforts to root out racist language in legislation and bring an end to the China Initiative.

Representative Chu was first elected to the Board of Education for Garvey School District in 1985. From there, she was elected to the Monterey Park City Council, where she served as Mayor three times. She then was elected to the State Assembly and then California's elected tax board, known as the State Board of Equalization. In 2009, she became the first Chinese American woman elected to Congress in history. Representative Chu was the recipient of the Committee of 100's Chinese in America Advancement Award in 2013.

The Committee of 100 Circle of Excellence Award for Humanity in Science & Technology is given to the group or individual who pursues clinical science advancements for humankind on an international scale, utilizing science, technology and research for such advancements.

Drs. Jean Cui and Peter Li co-founded Turning Point Therapeutics, Inc., a NASDAQ listed biotech company before it was acquired by Bristol Meyers Squibb for $4.1 Billion in June 2022. Dr. Cui was the Chief Scientific Officer at Turning Point from its founding in October 2013 to January 2020 and created 4 clinical compounds for addressing cancer resistance, with the leading compound, Repotrectinib, achieving 3 FDA Breakthrough Therapy designations, 3 FDA Fast-Track designations, and 1 FDA Orphan Drug designation to date. Dr. Cui is the lead inventor of Pfizer's precision oncology medicine, Crizotinib (Xalkori™). Crizotinib gained fast-track approval from the FDA in 2011 for ALK-positive late-stage non-small cell lung cancer (NSCLC). After Crizotinib, Dr. Cui designed the next-generation ALK medicine Lorlatinib (LORBREN™) for fighting treatment resistance from the 1st generation ALK medicine. Dr. Li served as Chairman and CEO of Turning Point from its founding to September 2018 and successfully raised a total of $147 million in venture financing from leading biotech investors.

The Committee of 100 Pinnacle Award for Public Service

HON. TED W. LIEU

*United States Representative;
Vice Chair,
House Democratic Caucus*

INTRODUCTION

WALTER WANG

President & CEO, JM Eagle

The Committee of 100 Pinnacle Award for Public Service is given to the group or individual that puts the interests of the Asian American and Pacific Islander community at the forefront of their policy and politics, regardless of party.

Congressman Ted Lieu represents California's 36th Congressional District in the United States House of Representatives. Congressman Lieu is serving in his fifth term in Congress and currently sits on the House Judiciary, Foreign Affairs, and Science, Space, and Technology Committees. He was elected by his colleagues to serve as Vice Chair of the Democratic Caucus, making him the highest-ranking Asian American to have ever served in House Leadership. Congressman Lieu is a veteran, having served on active duty and then in the Reserve for the Air Force. He retired from the Reserve in 2021 with the rank of Colonel. Prior to becoming Vice Chair, Congressman Lieu served as Co-Chair of the Democratic Policy and Communications Committee in the 116th and 117th Congresses. In that role, the Congressman helped to shape messaging around key Democratic priorities including the American Rescue Plan, the Inflation Reduction Act, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, the Chips and Science Act, among other initiatives.

The Committee of 100 Spotlight Award for Business Model Innovation

DAVID SZE

General Partner, Greylock Partners

INTRODUCTION

The Committee of 100 Spotlight Award for Business Model Innovation is given to the group or individual who develops a product or solution that fundamentally changes the traditional business model through technology, business processes or direct B2B to B2C application.

TONY XU

*CEO & Co-Founder,
DoorDash*

As the Co-Founder and CEO of DoorDash, Tony Xu has led a revolution in e-commerce, connecting customers with local businesses and their favorite retailers. Founded in 2013, DoorDash is building products and services to further local commerce, enabling merchants to thrive in the convenience economy, giving consumers access to more of their communities, and providing work that empowers. Born in Nanjing, China, Mr. Xu immigrated to the United States with his parents at the age of four, earning degrees from the University of California Berkeley and Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. A business and technology innovator, Mr. Xu worked at Square, McKinsey & Company and eBay, and was included in Fortune's "40 Under 40" list in 2020. DoorDash had its IPO in December 2020.

The Committee of 100 Chairman's Award for Lifetime Achievement in Arts & Culture

JANET YANG

President, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

INTRODUCTION

ANLA CHENG

*Anla Cheng, CEO & Founder,
The China Project*

Committee of 100 is honored to present our Member Janet Yang with the Committee of 100 Chairman's Award for Lifetime Achievement in Arts & Culture. The award is given to the group or individual who has a mission to advance the interests and promotion of minorities in the fields of arts and culture.

Elected in August of 2022 by the Board of Governors, Janet Yang currently serves as President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, the first Asian American and only fourth woman to ever hold the position, breaking through numerous glass ceilings in the position. Ms. Yang is an Emmy and Golden Globe Award-winning Hollywood producer and a trailblazer and advocate for the AAPI community. She came to prominence through her collaboration with Steven Spielberg on Empire of the Sun, followed by partnerships with Oliver Stone and Lisa Henson. Her extensive film and TV credits include The Joy Luck Club, The People vs. Larry Flynt, Shanghai Calling, and High Crimes. Ms. Yang currently leads Janet Yang Productions, which is developing projects with diverse themes. Her most recent credit is the Academy Award-nominated animated feature, Over the Moon. Ms. Yang is also co-chair of the Academy's Asian Affinity Group and a Member of the Committee of 100 since 1998.
