Committee of 100 is a non-profit, non-partisan membership organization of prominent Chinese Americans in business, government, academia, science, technology, and the arts. The organization was formed following the aftermath of Tiananmen Square.

At the urging of Dr. Henry Kissinger, renowned architect I.M. Pei assembled an exceptional group of Chinese Americans to address the critical issues impacting the Chinese community in America and help foster positive relations between the U.S. and Greater China.

This group of luminaries — Yo-Yo Ma, I.M. Pei, Henry S. Tang, Oscar Tang, Chien Shiung Wu, and Shirley Young — became the first generation of Committee of 100 members.

The name "Committee of 100" derives from a blend of inspirations from 'We the People' and the ancient Chinese idiom, 老百姓 (lao bai xing). Similar to 'We the People', 老百姓 emphasizes the importance of ordinary people. Both expressions underscore the collective power of individuals. The name Committee of 100 (百人會) symbolizes the potential of every person to effect change.

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Welcome to Committee of 100's 2024 Conference & Gala here in the heart of New York City. Since having the honor of serving as Committee of 100's Chair the past three years, I have witnessed first-hand the amazing work our nonprofit has been able to achieve in the face of a pandemic, increasing xenophobia against the Chinese American and AAPI population, and rising global tensions between the U.S. and China.

As we celebrate our 35th Anniversary, Committee of 100's dual mission is as important today as it was those 35 years ago: promoting the full participation of Chinese Americans in all aspects of American life and advancing constructive relations between the U.S. and Greater China.

As proud members and staff here at Committee of 100, we are committed to fostering unity, empowerment, and positive change within our community and beyond. We believe in the power of collective action and the strength that comes from embracing diversity. Whether you are a long-time advocate or new to the cause, your presence and support mean the world to us. Together, we can make a tangible difference in the lives of individuals and families in and around the Chinese American community.

Our black-tie celebratory Gala will highlight exemplary individuals and organizations who have made significant contributions in and around the AAPI community. A hearty congratulations to our distinguished honorees. And this year, our annual Conference & Gala has doubled the number of sessions, with three general sessions and two concurrent tracks of breakout sessions—one on U.S.-China issues and the other on Asian American issues. As we continue to embark on our dual mission, on behalf of everyone at Committee of 100, we look forward to working with all of you to build an even greater tomorrow for the Chinese American community - and thus America itself. Enjoy the 2024 Conference & Gala!

Sincerely,

Gary Locke
Chair, Committee of 100

LETTER FROM THE CONFERENCE CHAIR

On behalf of the 2024 Conference & Gala oversight committee and the sub-committees, it is my honor and pleasure to welcome each of you as we gather for this highly anticipated event.

As the Conference Chair for 2024, I am thrilled to see our community unite to celebrate our heritage, exchange knowledge, and forge new connections.

This year's conference holds special significance because it is our 35th Annual Conference & Gala and because it focuses on key issues that fall under the Committee of 100's dual missions during a very challenging period for all of us.

Despite these challenges, Committee of 100 has taken on these challenges and has had a powerful impact through its various programs and activities. Throughout this Conference and celebratory Gala, we will explore innovative ideas, engage in thought-provoking discussions, recognize individuals for their contributions, and reaffirm our commitment to advancing the missions of our organization.

This year, I am especially proud of the general session events and the dual-track of panels we have created that cover curated Asian American and U.S. China issues, mirroring our organization's dual missions. Through a diverse array of panel discussions, fireside chats, debates, and networking opportunities, we hope to inspire and empower each of you to continue making a meaningful impact on your respective spheres of influence.

We also hope that you will establish new friendships and connections that will enrich your personal, professional and community related lives. Let us embrace this opportunity to learn, connect, and inspire one another as we chart the course toward a brighter future.

I also want to thank the Committee of 100 members who served on the planning committees, and to express special appreciation for the hard work of the Committee of 100 staff and officers.

Thank you for your support. We hope you will be involved in our various activities and attend our events throughout the year and beyond.

Respectfully,

Peter Young

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of Committee of 100, I am delighted to welcome you to our 2024 Annual Conference & Gala. We come together once again to celebrate Chinese American heritage, engage in critical discussions and strengthen our community bonds.

Over the past year, Committee of 100 has made significant strides in our dual mission. We launched original research on the recent wave of state legislations restricting foreign ownership of land and included an interactive map tracking these bills. We also released a comprehensive report from the State of Chinese Americans survey (with Year 2 underway). We voiced our concerns about the decline of scientists and researchers furthering their studies in the United States, the expiration of the Science & Technology Agreement between the U.S. and China, and the need for diverse student bodies in higher education. Furthermore, we spoke out against the harmful language used by some government officials when speaking about U.S.-China competition through delegation trips, public statements, and public appearances and presentations at conferences and forums.

As Interim President, I am grateful for the dedication of our Members, supporters, Next Generation Leaders, partners and staff. We are excited to welcome a new group of Members and Next Generation Leaders at this year's Conference & Gala. Your support enables us to bridge cultures, foster AAPI unity, and advocate for positive change.

This year's conference is especially meaningful, as we reflect on the challenges and triumphs of the past year. Despite obstacles, our community has shown remarkable resilience and unity, underscoring the indomitable spirit of Chinese Americans. Welcome once again to the 2024 Annual Conference & Gala. May this gathering inspire, empower and unite us, as we strive for a better tomorrow.

With warm regards,

Cindy Tsai
Interim President, Committee of 100
